Independent reading	Physical activity
Reading every night is essential for literacy development.	For a well-rounded lifestyle, physical activity on a daily basis is necessary.
Housework	Cultural
Understanding the responsibilities of running a household. Daily and weekly chores that assist family members with household duties.	Participation in cultural events such as local fetes, market days, community concerts and family gatherings. This can give students exposure to a wide variety of experiences and may help to increase background knowledge and vocabulary.

*Extension work is optional and at the discretion of the parent/carer
